THIRD ANNUAL VEGAS MIXER A HUGE SUCCESS

The Third Annual Vegas Mixer, a regional IFMA chapter event benefiting the IFMA Foundation this year, was a social and financial success, raising an estimated $10,000 to fund the Foundation's next research project. More than 80 IFMA participants had their choice of a behind-the-scenes Hoover Dam tour or an excursion to the Nevada Test Site and Atomic Testing Museum.

Their hard work ensured that this event was a roaring success!

"The tours were extremely interesting, and the social mixer at the Monte Carlo Hotel was a tremendous networking opportunity," said IFMA Foundation Executive Director Will Rub.

The Foundation thanks the Nevada, Southern Arizona, Greater Phoenix and New Mexico Chapters of IFMA for supporting this event.

members and guests attended the event, April 4-5, 2007, in Las Vegas, Nev.

Mixer participants were treated to a complimentary tour of the Solargenix Energy Field followed by a social at the Brewery Pub at the Monte Carlo Hotel on Wednesday, April 4. The following day,

A special thanks goes out to event organizer and Foundation Liaison Kent Miller, FMP, and his team, including Cindy Heller and Karen Schick, CFM.

Kick off your World Workplace experience at IFMA Foundation Tuesday!

Don't miss the Foundation's annual golf tournament and gala on Tuesday, Oct. 23, 2007—one day prior to IFMA's World Workplace 2007 Conference & Expo in New Orleans, La.

Register your foursome today for the 2007 Doug Underwood/Utilities Council Golf Tournament, sponsored by UNICCO. The tournament will be held at the English Turn Golf & Country Club, a Jack Nicklaus-designed championship course set in a serene, plantation-like location just minutes from the French Quarter and Central Business District. Create your own foursome, or we can match you with a group. Either way, you can expect a well-run tournament, great company and a memorable morning.

Keeping in the spirit of New Orleans, the theme of annual IFMA Foundation Gala, sponsored by Bentley Prince Street, will be "Mime, Music and Magic." This evening of fine food, great music, casino gaming and more will take place at The Foundry, located in an authentic 19th century warehouse near the Mississippi Riverfront—a funky-yet-elegant environment for the evening's festivities!

Find out more about both events and register today at www.ifmafoundation.org.

Special Scholarships for New Orleans Students

In honor of this year's World Workplace host city, the IFMA Foundation will be awarding five $1,000 scholarships to facility management students with financial hardships from the greater New Orleans area. For more information or to apply, contact Will Rub at william.rub@ifma.org.
